Company	2Q09 Shipment
HP	200,421
Dell	90,273
IBM	62,359
Fujitsu	31,207
Sun	22,655
Others	84,743
Total	491,658

EMEA server shipments totalled just over 490,000 units in Q2 2009 (decline of 32%) and server revenue totaled $3 billion in Q2 (decline of 36% from the same quarter last year.)

In the x86 market, total volumes in EMEA declined 31% compared Q2 2008. HP (No.1 spot) declined 31%. IBM (No. 2) and Dell (No. 3) showed the largest declines in the top five at 35%.

RISC and Itanium UNIX revenues declined 38% in Q2. Of the top five vendors in this segment, Sun regained the No. 1 despite a decline of 40%. IBM (No. 2) was the least impacted but still fell 22%. HP (No. 3) posted a 45% decline. Bull (No. 4) fell 46%. And Fujitsu (No. 5) suffered largest decline of 73% due to weakness in demand in key countries such as Germany and a greater focus on its x86 product portfolio.
