Ingram Micro opens registration for the inaugural Cloud Summit Europe 2015, a cross-region, multi-day cloud summit for channel partners and prospects taking place in Barcelona from 30 March to 1 April.

Themed "Where Rainmakers Thrive," the 3-day event hosts the latest cloud-based tools and technologies and offers attendees education on cloud, social, mobile and analytics, as well as networking opportunities with European solution providers (VARs, system integrators, MSPs and telecom service providers), cloud service providers, cloud vendors and other cloud innovators.

Ingram Micro VP of cloud computing Renée Bergeron keynotes the event. Other speakers include Microsoft business solutions group VP Kirill Tatarinov, entrepreneur Thomas Dolby and Ingram Micro cloud computing VP Nimesh Dave.
